John 3:16 “For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life”

For God	the greatest being so loved	the greatest motive the world,	the greatest number that he gave	the greatest act his only begotten Son,	the greatest gift that whosoever	the greatest invitation believeth in him	the greatest requirement should not perish,	the greatest fear but have everlasting life.	the greatest hope.

Allen Webster

This verse is talking about God’s love for humanity. God invites us to receive His love (Rev 22:17 “And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.”) God loves us no matter what we have done, mistakes we made, and even if we do not love Him. His love is unconditional. He demonstrated His love for us through Jesus Christ and His death on the cross (Gal. 2:20). God’s love is eternal. He loved us so much he gave us the Bible to guide our lives (1 John 4:8). God’s love requires us to keep his commandments, and to fail to keep His commandments means we fail to love God. To fail to keep His commandments means we fail to love Jesus Christ. John 14:15 “If ye love me, keep my commandments” Keeping God’s commandments is a matter of love.
