A Considerate Husband

Mary Brunson was driving the new family car and inadvertently made a wrong turn and sideswiped another automobile. In tears, she began fumbling through the glove compartment in an effort to locate the ...

...appropriate insurance papers. When she finally found the documents she also discovered a small note attached in her husband's handwriting. It read simply,

"Dear Mary, When you read these papers, remember that it's you I love and not the car."

The Bible says that husbands are to dwell with their wives "according to knowledge, giving honour unto the wife, as unto the weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the grace of life; that your prayers be not hindered" (1 Peter 3:7). HTH

The Tomato Garden

An old gentleman lived alone in New Jersey. He wanted to plant his annual tomato garden, but it was very difficult work, as the ground was hard. His only son, Vincent, who used to help him, was in prison. The old man wrote a letter to his son and described his predicament:

Dear Vincent, I am feeling pretty sad because it looks like I won't be able to plant my tomato garden this year. I'm just getting too old to be digging up a garden plot. I know if you were here, my troubles would be over. I know you would be happy to dig the plot for me, like in the old days. Love, Papa

A few days later he received a letter from his son:

Dear Papa, Don't dig up that garden; that's where the bodies are buried. Love, Vinnie

At 4:00 a.m. the next morning, FBI agents and local police arrived and dug up the entire area without finding any bodies. They apologized to the old man and left.

That same day the old man received another letter from his son: Dear Papa, Go ahead and plant the tomatoes now. That's the best I could do under the circumstances. Love you, Vinnie (HTH)
