A Brick in the Wall

You may have heard the expression: “He was a brick!” Few know the origin and significance of that expression. The term implies all that is brave and loyal. Plutarch, in writing about the king of Sparta, tells how the phrase was...

...coined. An ambassador on a diplomatic mission visited the famous city. Knowing that its strength was acclaimed throughout all of Greece, he had expected to see massive fortresses surrounding the town, but he found nothing of the kind. Surprised, he exclaimed to the ruler, “Sir, you have no fortifications for defense. Why is this?”

“Ah, but we are well protected,” he replied. “Come with me tomorrow and I will show you the walls of Sparta.” The next day he led his guest to the plain where the army was drawn up in full battle array. Pointing to his soldiers who stood fearlessly in place, he said, “Behold the walls of Sparta—10,000 men and every man ‘a brick!’”

So it is with the soldier in the Army of The Lord. Our Commander in Chief commands His soldiers to stand fast before the enemy. Unflinching loyalty to God is not about manmade fortresses, but a faith that is firm. “Behold the walls of the faithful—an innumerable host of Christians; everyone a brick!”

—Glenn Hitchcock

Ephesians 6:10-13 “Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might. Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand.”
