A BRICK IN THE WALL

You may have heard the expression: “He was a brick!” Few know the origin and significance of that expression. The term implies all that is brave and loyal.

Plutarch, in writing about the king of Sparta, tells how the phrase was coined. An ambassador on a diplomatic mission visited the famous city. Knowing that its strength was acclaimed throughout all of Greece, he had expected to see massive fortresses surrounding the town, but he found nothing of the kind.

Surprised, he exclaimed to the ruler, “Sir, you have no fortifications for defense. Why is this?”

“Ah, but we are well protected,” he replied. “Come with me tomorrow and I will show you the walls of Sparta.”

The next day he led his guest to the plain where the army was drawn up in full battle array. Pointing to his soldiers who stood fearlessly in place, he said, “Behold the walls of Sparta—10,000 men and every man ‘a brick!’”

So it is with the soldier in the Army of The Lord. Our Commander in Chief commands His soldiers to stand fast before the enemy. Unflinching loyalty to God is not about manmade fortresses, but a faith that is firm. “Behold the walls of the faithful—an innumerable host of Christians; everyone ‘a brick!’”

Brother Michael Tanksley requested support to attend the Southeast Institute of Biblical Studies (formerly East Tennessee School of Preaching) and we sent some support as a one time gesture of encouragement.

The Lord's supper is observed

- “In spirit and in truth” (John 4:24).
- “Decently and in order” (1 Corinthians 14:40).
- In remembrance of Christ's sacrifice (Luke 22:19).
- In anticipation of Christ's return (1 Corinthians 11:26).
- On the first day of each week (Acts 20:7).
- Upon self-examination (1 Corinthians 11:28).
- It is observed to proclaim Christ as the Savior of men (1 Corinthians 11:26).
