TOO MANY TO COUNT

One day Abraham Lincoln summoned to the White House a surgeon in the Army of the Cumberland from the state of Ohio. The major assumed that he was to be commended for some exceptional work.

During the conversation, Mr. Lincoln asked the major about his widowed mother. "She is doing fine," he responded.

"How do you know," asked Lincoln? "You haven't written her. But she has written me. She thinks that you are dead, and she is asking that a special effort be made to return your body."

At that point, the Commander and Chief placed a pen in the young doctor's hand and ordered him to write a letter letting his mother know that he was alive and well.

Oh, the blessings that we take for granted. Oh, the wretchedness of ingratitude. It was Shakespeare who worded it more appropriately than ever we could. He wrote: "Blow, blow, thou winter wind./Thou art not so unkind/As man's ingratitude."

Thank God for His marvelous providence in granting manifold blessings to the ungrateful many!

Try this simple math project: start counting your blessings one by one for just two days. You will be surprised what God is doing in your life. Are you ready to receive? Are you ready to count? If so, then be ready to rejoice.

Psalm 103:1-5 "Bless the LORD, O my soul: and all that is within me, bless his holy name. Bless the LORD, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits: Who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases; Who redeemeth thy life from destruction; who crowneth thee with lovingkindness and tender mercies; Who satisfieth thy mouth with good things; so that thy youth is renewed like the eagle's." Did You Think to Pray?

The greatest thing that anybody can do for the growth of the church is to pray. "Finally, brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may run swiftly and be glorified, just as it is with you" (2 Thessalonians 3:1; cf. 1 Thessalonians 5:25). Somebody might say, "I want to do more than pray." And I would say to you, "I want you to do more than pray." But you can never do more than pray until first you have prayed. "If we ask anything according to His will, He hears us" (1 John 5:14).
