Always Abounding in the Work of the Lord

1 Corinthians 15:58

Abound = "to be plentiful, to be filled"

2 Cor. 8:7; Phil. 1:9; Eph. 2:10; 2 Pet. 1:5-8; 1 Thess. 4:1 ;
Matt. 5:16; Matt. 23:5; John 9:4; Titus 2:14

Ability + opportunity = responsibility

Col. 3:16 Songs we sing:

*We'll Work Till Jesus Comes
To the Work
Toiling on
I want to be a worker
Work for the night is coming*

What is the work of our Lord?

Gal. 6:10; 2 Cor. 4:7; 1 Pet. 3:15; 2 Tim. 4:7

Always = "at all times" (Grk), :for all future time; forever."
John 8:29 "And he that sent me is with me: the Father hath not left me alone; for I do always those things that please him."

1,000 Miles An Hour

The earth rotates on its axis at approximately 1,000 miles per hour. If that had been 100 miles per hour, our days and nights would be 10 times longer, and our planet would alternately burn and freeze. Under such circumstances vegetation could not live.

If the earth were as small as the moon, the power of gravity would be too weak to retain sufficient atmosphere for man's needs; but if it were as large as Jupiter, Saturn, or Uranus, extreme gravitation would make human movement almost impossible.

If we were as near to the sun as Venus, the heat would be unbearable; if we were as far away as Mars, we would experience snow and ice every night, even in the warmest regions.

If the oceans were half their present dimensions, we would receive only one-fourth the rainfall we do now. If they were one eighth larger, our annual precipitation would increase four fold, and this earth would become a vast, uninhabitable swamp.

Water solidifies at 32 degrees Fahrenheit above zero. It would be disastrous if the oceans were subject to that law, however, for then the amount of thawing in the Polar Regions would not balance out, and ice would accumulate throughout the centuries. To prevent such a catastrophe, the Lord put salt in the sea to alter its freezing point.

“And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.” JOHN 8:32

A Real Saint

Two brothers had terrorized a small town for decades. They were unfaithful to their wives, abusive to their children, and dishonest in business. The younger brother died unexpectedly. The surviving brother went to the preacher of the local church. "I'd like you to conduct my brother's funeral," he said, "but it's important to me that during the service, you tell everyone my brother was a saint." "But he was far from that," the minister countered. The wealthy brother pulled out his checkbook. "I'm prepared to give $100,000 to your church. All I'm asking is that you publicly state that my brother was a saint." On the day of the funeral, the preacher began his eulogy this way. "Everyone here knows that the deceased was a wicked man, a womanizer, and a drunk. He terrorized his employees and cheated on his taxes." Then he paused. "But as evil and sinful as this man was, compared to his older brother, he was a saint!" Prov. 15:15; 17:22
