What courage and faith!

Stephen preached: Acts 7:48-50 "Howbeit the most High dwelleth not in temples made with hands; as saith the prophet, Heaven is my throne, and earth is my footstool: what house will ye build me? saith the Lord: or what is the place of my rest? Hath not my hand made all these things?" Verse 59 teaches us "they stoned Stephen."

Paul was right in the middle of all these ornate temples and statues of the Athenians and preached, "Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands"

Paul preached: Acts 17:22-25 "Then Paul stood in the midst of Mars' hill, and said, Ye men of Athens, I perceive that in all things ye are too superstitious. For as I passed by, and beheld your devotions, I found an altar with this inscription, TO THE UNKNOWN GOD. Whom therefore ye ignorantly worship, him declare I unto you. God that made the world and all things therein, seeing that he is Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands; Neither is worshipped with men's hands, as though he needed any thing, seeing he giveth to all life, and breath, and all things;"

God has always required his followers to have faith and walk with courage.

Deuteronomy 31:6 "Be strong and of a good courage, fear not, nor be afraid of them: for the LORD thy God, he it is that doth go with thee; he will not fail thee, nor forsake thee."

Joshua 1:9 "Have not I commanded thee? Be strong and of a good courage; be not afraid, neither be thou dismayed: for the LORD thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest."

Psalm 27:14: “Wait on the LORD: be of good courage, and he shall strengthen thine heart: wait, I say, on the LORD.”

Proverbs 28:1 “The wicked flee when no man pursueth: but the righteous are bold as a lion.”

1 Thessalonians 2:2 “But even after that we had suffered before, and were shamefully entreated, as ye know, at Philippi, we were bold in our God to speak unto you the gospel of God with much contention.”

Read: Hebrews 13:5-6

Amazingly Small

The Bible is amazingly small. The Sunday newspaper has more words than the New Testament. Imagine a book that fits in one hand that describes

- the creation of the universe and man (Genesis 1);
- more than four thousand years of human history, including much recorded nowhere else;
- a comprehensive history of the Jewish nation;
- the lives of forty-seven kings (1 Samuel–2 Chronicles), including such renowned men as David and Solomon;

- more than 300 fulfilled prophecies of the Messiah;
- the birth, life, deeds, words, death, burial, resurrection, and ascension of the world’s Savior (Matthew–John);
- the gospel—its facts, commands, and promises (Matthew–Acts; 1 Corinthians 15:1–4);
- the establishment, growth, and fifty year early history of the church (Acts–Revelation);
- a comprehensive system of ethics and a daily guide for a happy life (e.g., Matthew 5–7; Titus 2:11–14; 1 Peter 3:10–11);
- organization, leadership qualifications, and rules of conduct for the church (Romans–Jude);
- a missionary plan to cover the whole world in every generation (Mark 16:15–16; Acts 1:8); and a prophecy of what happens beyond this life and into eternity (Revelation). —Author Unknown
