Life's Lessons

Author Unknown

I've learned that the best classroom in the world is at the feet of an elderly person.

I've learned that when you're in love, it shows.

I've learned that having a child fall asleep in your arms is one of the most peaceful feelings in the world.

I've learned that you should never say "no" to a gift from a child.

I've learned that I can always pray for someone when I don't have the strength to help in some other way.

I've learned that no matter how serious your life requires you to be, everyone needs a friend to unwind with.

I've learned that sometimes all a person needs is a hand to hold and a heart to understand.

I've learned that simple walks with my father around the block on summer nights when I was child did wonders for me as an adult.

Matthew 7:13-14 "Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat: Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it."

There Is But One Way"

John 14:6 Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me. Many have gone the broad way as God said would happen. Taking Jesus in His own words: Matthew 7:21-22 Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophetised in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works?

There is just one way. Are you in the one way? Please consider the "One Way" in the references below:

"One God" Ephesians 4:6

"One Lord" Ephesians 4:5

"One Spirit" Ephesians 4:4

"One Faith" Ephesians 4:5

I've learned that life is like a roll of paper towels. The closer it gets to the end, the faster it goes.

I've learned that we should be glad God doesn't give us everything we ask for.

I've learned that money doesn't buy class.

I've learned that it's those small daily happenings that make life so spectacular.

I've learned that under everyone's hard shell is someone who wants to be appreciated and loved.

I've learned that the Lord didn't do it all in one day. What makes me think I can?

I've learned that to ignore the facts does not change the facts.

I've learned that when you plan to get even with someone, you are only letting that person continue to hurt you.

I've learned that love, not time, heals wounds.

I've learned that everyone you meet deserves to be greeted with a smile.

“One repentance” Luke 13:3,5

“One confession” Acts 8:37

“One baptism” Romans 6:3-4

“One body” (church) Ephesians 1:22-23; 4:4

“One hope” Ephesians 4:4

“One mind” 1 Corinthians 1:10

“One name” Isaiah 62:2; Acts 11:26

“One unity” John 17:20-21

“One rule” Philippians 3:6

Many reject the one way and it is sad indeed. God went to great lengths to give us the one way and man rejects it. All rejection of the one way is the “broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction,” Acts 18:26 “And he began to speak boldly in the synagogue: whom when Aquila and Priscilla had heard, they took him unto them, and expounded unto him the way of God more perfectly.”

I've learned that when you harbor bitterness, happiness will dock elsewhere.

I've learned that I wish I could have told my Dad that I love him one more time before he passed away.

I've learned that when your newly born child holds your finger in her little fist, that you're hooked for life.

I've learned that everyone wants to live on top of the mountain, but all the happiness and growth occurs while you're climbing it.

I've learned that the less time I have to work with, the more things I get done.

I've learned that no one is perfect until you fall in love with them.
